To many people around the world, the year 2020 has been long-awaited. Everyone has a clear-cut vision for all they want to do in 2020. It is viewed as the year where you achieve all that you have dreamed of. It is the year that you become more aware of what is happening around you and make your mark on this earth.

It is also the year where you accomplish all that you have prepared for. Despite everything that has come your way - whether it was a stepping stone to catapult you or it was an obstacle you needed to overcome - you're going to make sure you fulfill your vision for 2020.

For us here at GIS, the year 2020 is the time we showcase our responsibility as global citizens; hence, our theme for the 2020 yearbook "2020 Vision" - ties in with our keyphrase of the year: "Being Socially Responsible". We are starting off the new decade with a big bang - all the puzzle pieces are finally fitting together to paint a picture that we hope to convey through our plans for a brighter future.

Despite everything that has come your way - whether it was a stepping stone to catapult you or it was an obstacle you needed to overcome

As you work your way through the pages of the yearbook, we hope you are able to show a new admiration for our motto, "Understanding of each other", through our school-wide and sectional events, projects and initiatives, as we create an environment for both students and faculty and the community around us to thrive.

ADDRESS

What a blessing to get to the end of the School Year and to be able to say a few words to cap off what has been the most eventful one in recent memory! I will leave the details to each Section; they will do a far better job of highlighting what we were able to do, what we adapted to, and how we all worked hard to maintain some normalcy for students, parents, staff and Friends of GIS during the CoVID-19 crisis.

Our entire country is still battling the CoVID-19 virus and as such, our School is closed. It has been so difficult for all of us: children miss the joy of being with friends at School, teachers miss the familiar practicality of a physical classroom and the sound of children's voices, Staff miss their rewarding roles at the School, and parents miss the ease of having occupations as well as raising children in what we called normal. Our normal has changed and we all have to ask ourselves how we will change to adapt to this new normal. Understandably there is a whole lot of anxiety with how this will affect our learning but I trust that this Term 3, the most unusual term ever, our entire community has been privy to the immense effort by our Staff, especially our Academic Staff, to deliver an online learning program that we are proud of. I am indebted to an indomitable Management Team who led their respective staff teams to ensure that as we didn't miss a beat in adjusting to new learning and delivering new learning amidst unavoidable challenges.

The famous anthropologist Margaret Mead was asked by a student to share what the first signs of civilization were in an ancient culture. To the student's surprise, she said it was a femur (a thigh bone) that had been broken and healed; it wasn't the presence of clay pots or metal tools. According to the anthropologist, a broken femur indicated an accident but healing implied that the individual had been carried away, to avoid being eaten by prowling beasts. The presence of a helping individual, willing to carry the person away to safety, tend to their wounds until they are healed, is where civilization starts.

What a treatise on our expectations for students in a year where our Keyword is Social Responsibility! We cannot grow and improve as a culture, a nation, a community, if we do not feel socially responsible for one another. It is therefore all the more poignant that our School Motto reminds us to have 'Understanding Of One Another' so that we can act responsibly.

This Yearbook is the result of great effort and dedication by Mrs. Olivia Lecosson, the Principal's Office Team, Counseling Department and the Vice Principals and Teachers of the Secondary School and Primary School. We owe them a debt of gratitude for producing this beautiful memory in the midst of so much change and anxiety.

One of my favourite quotes from the esteemed, Nobel Prize Winning Playwright, Wole Soyinka's play 'Death & The King's Horseman' admonishes us that 'When the time is short, we do not spend it prolonging the riddle'. On that note, I will bid you adieu, as you journey through this Yearbook, and hope that everything on these pages will remind you, especially our departing students, that there is a silver lining at the edge of every cloud.

Covid or no Covid. . . the 2019/2020 Academic Year was a wonderful time to be at GIS!

Blessings,

SECRETARY AND CREATIVE WRITING

Dear Future editors,
You might be reading this, asking what a yearbook editor does and the essence of this role, but let me reveal a little secret. We were just like you a year ago in form 5 reading a similar message from the previous editors of the Yearbook. We would have never guessed we would be where we are today, but we've loved every single minute of it. What we are trying to tell you is to love the Yearbook as we did and surely you will have the time of your life, from spending your time in the Art room jamming to music whilst cutting hearts for Red day; using countless hours to plan our annual Carnifest (Let me tell you, it's not easy but fun); calling vendors and coaxing artists; setting up for Mr and Miss GIS auditions which were a blast. Despite these exciting moments, this leadership role does come at the cost of your free time, so your planning and time management skills must be on point to succeed in a position like this. Though this journey was cut short by COVID-19, it was amazing, and we would do this 300 times over again. So, to our dear future editors, we just hope you love the Yearbook as much as we do. A very big special thanks to Mr. Morgan, Mrs. Olivia Lecosson, our very own photographers, Paulo J Ross and Nymeama, who helped in the creation of the 2019/2020 Yearbook, and we hope you enjoy it as much as we do.

Did you know that Ghana International School (G. I. S.) was founded in September, 1955 to provide international education to students of all races and creeds, at a time when Ghana was yet to achieve full independence, and international schools were a rarity?

On behalf of Mr. Morgan, members of the Yearbook Club and myself, we would like to say a very big thank you to everyone who supported our journey in the publication of the 2019-2020 Yearbook. The year started off with so much excitement and zeal to achieve just about anything. We were optimistic that events lined up on our academic calendar would unfold as normal without any glitches whatsoever until the latter part of Term 2 was suddenly curtailed by the uncertainties of COVID-19 and everything else that came with it.

As Yearbook Coordinator, my experience this year has been a bittersweet one. The worst was seeing the look of disappointment on the faces of club members when Mr. Morgan and I announced that our highly anticipated Carnifest event was cancelled. They had dedicated so much time and hard work towards putting up one of the most memorable events ever.

But in spite of everything that was happening we had to move on. If there is anything that I have learned this year, it is to stay positive and keep going in the midst of obvious hurdles. It is so easy for us to give up. A million and one excuses will always present themselves, urging us to give up. I have learned to stay bright in the darkest corner because the dimmest light has the ability to break through the darkest situations, making way for numerous blessings to be unfolded.

Today, as you hold a copy of the yearbook in your hands, please know that it was put together with a lot of love, dedication and hard work from all of us.

Until next year, let's continue to dream big, dream beyond 2020, keep safe and trust that still small voice in us that keeps urging us to keep going!

God bless and enjoy our Yearbook!

Best memory in GIS: Form 2, my friends and I went to the canteen, and a Lower Sixth Former who loved picking on us decided to do so in front of a girl he seemed to like. My friend Nathan Christian (before the guy could begin his teasing) said "You know he's gonna try to make fun of us to impress you right?". Somehow (God knows how) the sixth former was extremely offended and proceeded to choke Nathan with the utmost strength - however! One Nii Agyeman Nikoi would not have any of it, and intervened to push the sixth former off his friend and onto the wall. Nathan ran away faster than you could say Lawrence Agyemang, cursing into the wind and attempting to go straight home, while Agye and I were stuck with the horde of Sixth Formers who were rather upset that Agye had interfered at all. Suffice to say, we made a big impression in our first year.

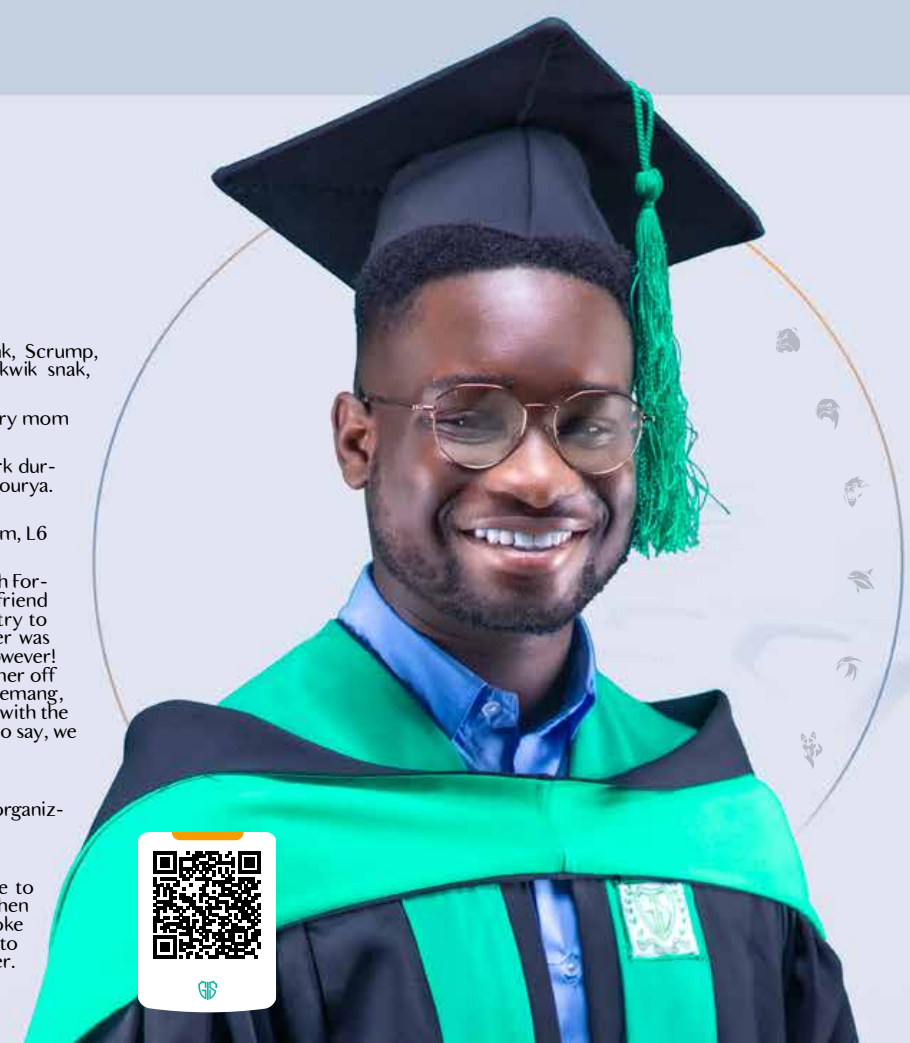

One word to sum up your GIS experience: Homeric

What do you want to be remembered for: Starting the Film Appreciation Club, organizing GISMUN 2019 and being the greatest rapper of all time

Greatest lesson learned: You can't please everybody.

Any last words: "Don't talk like you're one of them, you're not. Even if you'd like to be. You see to them, you're just a freak, like me! They need you right now but when they don't they'll cast you out, like a leper! Their morals their code, it's just a bad joke - dropped at the first sign of trouble. They're only as good as the world allows them to be. I'll show you, when the chips are down these "civilized people" they'll eat each other. You see I'm not a monster, I'm just ahead of the curve."

Please sustain my add maths life (@Rohit), that's a bit of a sticky one, on Gawddd (@PokuB), YIE!!!, I Don't know about that one chief,, Such as but not limited to, perceptions can never be objectified.

Three words that describe you: Any at all

What would you be happy to leave behind: The heat in the canteen; the slow and moody Wi-Fi; traffic after school; the bureaucracy; the sound problems at assembly; "announcements from the PE department"; the dusty hockey/football pitch; highly inaccurate PE grades; sugar-free week (I love the school but I never got the point of this thing); the stress from CIE

Favourite spots: Prefects room, common room, Senco

What will you miss the most: Literally debating about everything in MUN; going on GIS trips outside Ghana and meeting a whole lot of people; Hockey practice; Mr. Peters shouting at me during ISSAG hockey; hearing Mr. Amponsah Mensah's, don't be silly at assembly & the canteen's potatoes and beef sauce, bread and kebab, and of course Bra Emma's grilled chicken; throwing shade left and right; MCing school events; all those who believed in me and supported me through these years; Prefect meetings; Andrews being cringy (and that's most of the time); Michelle's deadly laugh; Poku's accent; Brago's craziness; I'll miss everyone tbh

Best Memories in GIS: Not being able to feel my legs during sponsored walks; my first Jams in class 6; SRC elections in form 4; Form 3 Geo trip; London MUN trip in form 5 (probably had the greatest week of my life) including all the 328 at the London Dungeon (if you know, you know);

Bio trip in L6 and U6; Running for Head boy and being elected: "VOTE ZONGO - AFTER THIS MAN-IFESTO!!" (being Head Boy was hands down the greatest highlight of my GIS experience and I'm so glad to have served as a leader; advocate for all the students); organizing arTRYx, bloom in GIS (shoutout to BragoB); Taking part in initiation in F1, where I did the Haka dance, and then organizing initiation in U6, where I made other people do the Haka dance lol; Modeling lessons for Mr. & Ms. GIS; IELC in Virginia with Naren, Ruchika, and Serwaa; going to the UN headquarters in New York (I felt like I was going to collapse that day!!!!); organizing GISMUN 2019 with the secretariat (Shoutout to Jojo, Rohit, Rohan, Naren, Cameron, Kushi, and all my other MUN folks #GISMUNToTheWorlddd); Bio practicals with PokuB; Running for blue house during sports day (never won though).

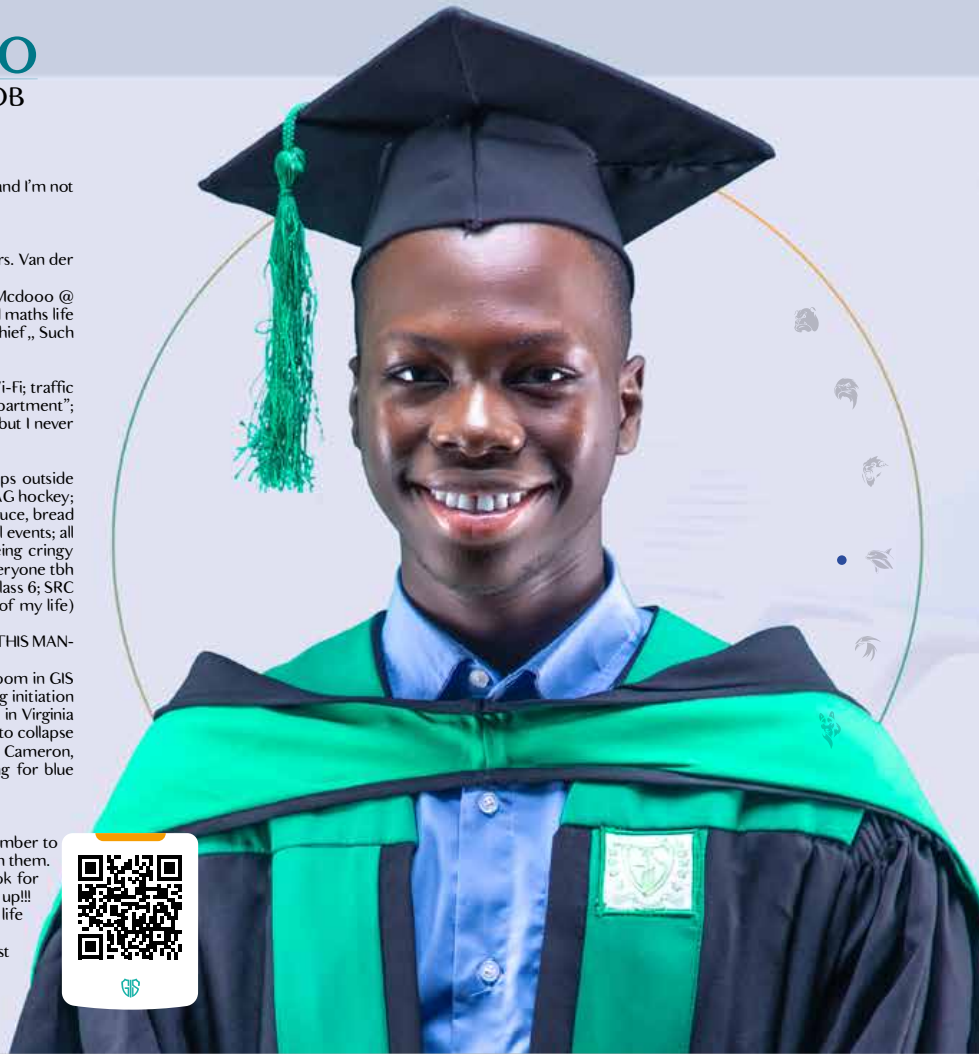

One word to sum up your GIS experience: Interesting

What do you want to be remembered for: Speaking French, English, and killing it at MUN

Greatest lesson learned: No matter where you are in life, stay unique, find your place, and remember to use your differences to connect more with others around you rather than separating yourself from them.

ANY last words: To anyone reading this, take everything you can from the GIS experience - look for new opportunities, get out of your comfort zone, (please) be social and never be afraid to speak up!! If you do this, then your future is just as bright as the lights in the auditorium. Best 9 years of my life no cap! Jusqu'à la prochaine fois GIS!!

ROHIT

Nickname: Prakash, Mohimoney, Chonani, Chohit, Roro, Rohan

Nationality: Tech Support (but seriously Ghanaian-Indian)

Favourite class: Form 3 Muaths with Mr. Tillo and Form 4 Econs with Mr. Ako

Favourite staff member: Mr. Agbotse

Three words that describe you: Bone-deep Physics Nerd

Favourite saying/catchphrase: 'But you are a man, so you must come and eat with the men first'.

'So you think you're some Sankey Diagram'. 'He/She/They gave you!'. 'WE GOOOO!!'. 'Art, you just sit down and draw, that one too you can't do'. 'It's a vicious cycle'. 'Scra'. 'Scrippy Pimpy'. 'SuperFantaBruta'. 'Don't excite my mind'. 'Allow'. 'Hmmm kai'. '4-0 quits'. 'You have no life'. 'Who born dog?'

What would you be happy to leave behind: Back-to-back practicals, the constant influx of late passes, all the classrooms with broken ACs and rocking tables, having 4 tests in a day, and constantly looking for the silver-grey calculator because I would always manage to lose mine.

What will you miss the most: Mr. Agbotse's interesting tangents that sometimes stray too far into the realm of dy/dx . Mr. Afeawo always saying 'I'm never in all 3 Chem classes in any given week'. Mr. Amponsah-Mensah's inspiring talks and thinly veiled threats telling us to be serious and go and learn. Mr. Sampson's unreasonably fun Fada Muaf's classes. Turning my glasses upside down and donning the mantle of 'philosophical Rohit'. Good old-fashioned fooling and laughing at stupid jokes with the squad.

Favourite spot: The comfy chairs in the Common Room where you can bed so wonderfully

Best memory in GIS: Having all out paper plane wars in that one Form 2 History class while Mr. Greyham marked some papers. Playing Melee everywhere, from the bleachers to the desk outside the Form 4 Block, to the Common Room (where we got caught and it was seized sigh). Watching E3 in the IT lab when we got our exam papers back. Playing President and having my lowest card be a 9 for some 7 rounds. Chances Hotel and the form 3 Geo trip-going to see a river and monkeys, but the river was dried up and the monkeys too no dey.

One word to sum up your GIS experience: Chaaaaaalee

What do you want to be remembered for: Being an absolute god in table tennis, being impeccably punctual always, being the human calculator, and making classes a little more fun I hope.

Greatest lesson learned: Journey before Destination. A journey will evidently have pain and failure. It is not only the steps forward we must accept, but the stumbles, the trials. The knowledge that we will fail. However, if we accept who we are when we fail, then that failure becomes our destination. And in this journey, the most important step a man can take. It's not the first one, is it? It's the next one. Always the next step.

Any last words: "Onward, then! To glory and some such nonsense."

Infant

Greetings from the Infant School, dear reader!

This message is quite different from the one I originally intended to write and of course, I am sure you can guess why: the totally unexpected, extraordinary upending of the world as we know it, in the face of the Coronavirus pandemic!

The 2019/20 academic year began with great hope and promise. One thing that was clear right from the start was that it would be a year of 'firsts'. It started with UN Day: for the first time in the history of the School, there was no Parade of Nations and no Food Fair! Shock and horror! Each section of the School engaged in low-key celebrations: in the Infants, we combined for the first time, a Year 2 Achievement Award

Assembly with the UN Day celebrations. At the beginning of the assembly, a selection of students from Nursery to Class 2, sang Alicia Key's song 'We are here' and at the end of the assembly, we all sang 'Oman Ye Me Man' with all our hearts. Remember? Our beautiful country Ghana is indeed all we have: our beautiful world is all we have; we don't have anywhere else to go and so we must take good care of both!

'Hey Ewe!' was our charming Christmas Musical Nativity, which had nothing whatsoever to do with the tribe of people in Ghana called the Ewe! There were more firsts: the speaking and acting parts were not limited to Class 2 pupils only but were given to all children with a talent for acting and public speaking. We also celebrated and were totally enchanted by the beautiful voices of the Infant School Choir and the children who sang solo. What was the name of the song your class sang?

We started 2020 full of hope and great plans! I remember thinking, on December 31st 2019, about all the Whatsapp messages I was receiving, especially those of a religious nature, which proclaimed in triumph our entry into a New Year and a new decade. What exciting possibilities would the New Year bring, I wondered?

By the end of January, we had started hearing about a strange, strikingly beautiful but potentially lethal new virus that was making people very sick and causing some to die in a place that few had ever heard of: Wuhan, Hubei Province, China! We weren't too worried here in Ghana, though. Wuhan seemed millions of miles away and anyway, hadn't Ebola passed over us; and wasn't the virus allergic to hot weather; and wasn't it true that Black people didn't get it? At GIS, ever cautious, always prepared, measures were put in place; proper hand washing, more hand washing and even more hand washing is what we in the Infants will remember most about that time!

And so the term continued and along came, in quick succession, Favourite Book Character Day, with the teachers' alternative version of the 3 Little Pigs (who didn't just learn to build houses but enjoyed borrowing books from the local Library!) and our first tentative steps towards a Reggionara-style celebration of families reading together; Rare Disease Day when we learned that Ghana's National flower is the Impala Lily or Mole flower (remember the beautiful carpet of Edelweiss and Mole Flowers we made?); and Ghana Day, which we again combined with a Year 2 Achievement Award Assembly. There was a reenactment of Kwame Nkrumah's Independence Day Speech at the Old Polo Grounds; and a thrilling drumming extravaganza to bring the assembly to a close. This year, the class presentations were combined; they were all about the 6 newly created regions, and were all performed outdoors! Yet another first!

And so we found ourselves edging towards the end of Term 2, amid serious preparations for Sports Day. Then suddenly, on February 13th 2020, following on from confirmation the previous evening of the first two coronavirus cases in Ghana, everything turned upside down and we experienced the biggest 'first' of all: the School would close down at the end of the day instead of at the end of term and everyone would go home. For how long? No one knew! And so began an experiment in virtual learning for the whole school, including the Infants. All the children went home with a pack of work to do for the first week. On the Monday, the teachers started sending 'Hello' emails, videos and additional work from the Subject and Support Teachers to the children and during that week, we held our first ever video conferences via Google Meet! Imagine that! The teachers worked very long hours every day to create engaging interactive lessons for the Infants to do at home and Elia and Michelangelo inspired us to join the #andratuttobene movement. Another huge 'first'! Who could possibly have guessed that this was how we would 'do' school in 2020?

*Wuhan seemed
away and anyway ...*

So what about 'Vision 2020', the theme for this academic year's Yearbook? 2020, 'the year where you achieve all you have dreamed of'. The year that you 'accomplish all that you have prepared for'.

How are you going to 'make sure that you fulfill your vision for 2020' when you are stuck at home in lockdown? What does it all mean? What are we all supposed to learn?

I think the little Infants could answer that last question for you, isn't that right, children? You see, the little Infants know that they are not in charge of anything, that they are not in control! And so for them, it's easy to understand what we are all being forced to understand by the circumstances surrounding Covid-19: that you can do NOTHING without God and other people! So humility and gratitude are at the top of the list of dispositions that Coronavirus is encouraging us all to embrace. Out go a critical, arrogant, greedy, grasping, complaining spirit! In come tenderness, contentment, respect and 'Understanding of Each Other!'

Little children also know that all we have is the present moment. Every Infant child can tell you that if you take a big jump forward, you won't find yourself in tomorrow! And if you take a big jump backwards, you won't go back to yesterday! So what are we supposed to do with today? Live each moment as a Sacrament - of everything beautiful, good and true, always practicing the presence of God! Because that's all we've got! The present moment, in His presence! Actually, the truth is, that's all we've ever had, if we ever thought about it! And if we live each moment being the kindest we can be, the most thoughtful, working the hardest, caring, sharing and encouraging, using our gifts and talents to make a difference; if we do this, then all the moments of all our lives will pass well, will be a beautiful symphony of praise to the God who made us. And we will be light-hearted, fulfilled, happy and free! Will we eventually accomplish 'Vision 2020'? Maybe; maybe not! But if we've done our best, we can trust that everything is just as it should be and one thing is for sure, we won't be as arrogant in pursuit of our goals as we may have been before! No more riding roughshod over others to get to the top! No more pushing others out of the way to be first!

There's one last thing little Infants are very good at doing, if we allow them to: using their very vivid imaginations to create worlds that never existed! Perhaps this will be the biggest and most challenging lesson they and the Coronavirus pandemic will teach us: how to reimagine everything that we were once so certain about; things like 'going' to school; 'going' to work; 'going' shopping; 'going' to the doctor...I can't wait to see and hear about the exciting new inventions, elegant new systems, simpler and more wholesome lifestyles that are just around the corner, created by you and me, ready for all of us to embrace!

This has been the longest message I've ever written for a Yearbook and it's probably because it is my last. The past 21 years at GIS have been the happiest of my life, a priceless treasure the memory of which will remain with me forever. I am grateful for the opportunity to have served you all - the kindest, most thoughtful, most loving, most gifted, most talented children and families I have ever known. Thank you! I have been privileged to collaborate with some of the most talented, creative and hard working individuals in the world, truly good people whom it has been an absolute pleasure to know, work alongside and learn from. Thank you fellow Managers and your teams! Thank you Teachers, especially the fabulous Infant School Teachers, true children's champions! Thank you Junior Teachers, Nannies and Stewards! Thank you, everyone! Infant School team, you always rallied to the call, giving your all for the sake of the learning and well-being of our youngest children. Ayekoo to you all! May the good Lord bless and reward you a thousand-fold for your loving kindness, hard work, dedication and valiant efforts in times of trial.

My time at GIS draws to a close during a period of extreme uncertainty, but there's one thing I know for sure: God is in control, and because of that, as Elia reminded us: Everything is going to be alright! Enjoy leafing through this online version of the 2019/20 Yearbook! There you go, an online version; another first!

UN Week Celebration

What is your pledge to make this world a much better place?

In previous years, GIS would celebrate the unity we have as nations belonging to the United Nations (UN) on or around the officially recognized UN Day.

This year, we focused more on the educational activities that build knowledge of the UN, its role, its activities, and its future. Infants, Juniors, Lower and Upper Secondary sections spent the week of 21st October in a range of experiences designed to further their knowledge of the UN, its many arms, and its key personnel. Our Model United Nations (MUN) Club, distinguished in Ghana and abroad in rigorous competitions (with awards won!) took on various active roles in supporting this knowledge transfer. At the Infant School, Staff and Pupils come together for a UN shaped aerial shot. They later pledged to make the world a much better and safer place. Their UN week ended on a high with a Year 2 UN Day Achievement Awards assembly where pupils made a "We are the World Presentation", cat-walked in their various national costumes inside their classrooms, stopped to say something about their culture and customs. They also enjoyed sampling various dishes from around the world.

Farewell
MS. OWU

Dear Ms. Owu, We celebrate and share in your joy as you retire from Ghana International School.

You have been a fountain of inspiration for us. For your persistence, drive, and exemplary leadership qualities, we salute you. I am inspired by your vision and motivation, and I am so blessed to have been mentored by such a caring, loving, compassionate and remarkable woman like you at Ghana International School. The knowledge that you have shared with us is a treasure that will remain forever in our hearts, and we promise to pass it on. We respect and admire your accomplishments, and we are proud to be associated with an industrious leader like you. I wish you good luck and pray that your future endeavors will be filled with abundant blessings more than you can ever imagine. Have a blissful retirement! Much love,

NADINE ROCKS - RECEPTION- BLUEBELL

Ms. Owu, Congratulations on reaching this amazing milestone. My prayers are that you will move on to your next chapter full of all the love from the children that you have supported throughout your amazing career. You have taught all of us so much, including me personally. You are an amazing and dynamic person and you speak volumes without uttering a word. Thank you for all of your support, your love of the arts, and your great leadership. Lots of love,

VANESSA STAVEN - INFANT SCHOOL ART TEACHER

Ms Owu, we love you for your kind, loving and caring nature. As a Vice-Principal, You have been a great mentor and a dynamic leader. Working under your leadership has been the most fulfilling moments of my life. You have always encouraged us to

I will always remember the day Ms. Owu spotted a 'double space' in a draft message I snapped as a photo and sent to her via WhatsApp for approval. Excellence, modesty and honesty are a part of her everyday life. Ms. Owu relates with me in a caring and motherly manner. I find it a great privilege to have worked under her guidance these past five years. I have learnt a lot, and have so much to be grateful for. God bless you Ms. Owu! Wishing you good health and happiness in your retirement! You will be sorely missed!

ADELAIDE PEARCE ARTHUR - P.A. TO THE VICE PRINCIPAL, INFANT SCHOOL

Ms. Owu, you are a dynamic leader and I applaud you for your years of service. You have fostered a sense of support and appreciation that allows us as teachers to improve our practice daily. My heartiest congratulations and best wishes on your retirement. This is the time when your hard work and dedication deserve a standing ovation and I will continue to benefit from your personal wisdom. As much as I hate to see you go, I can't help but share in your joy on the occasion of your retirement. Your vision, wisdom, and passion for the Infant School is apparent every time you hold assembly or speak to us teachers. Never forget how amazing you are. You will never be forgotten.

ELIZABETH ABAYANA (MRS) - SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL NEEDS COORDINATOR - INFANT SCHOOL

do more, learn more and dream more. Thank you so much for guiding and motivating us! On your retirement I would like to wish you lots of good luck for your future life. May this golden phase of your life be filled with new adventures, meaningful moments and much happiness!!!

REENA METHA - CLASS 1 - LILY

Dearest Ms. Owu, Does G.I.S. know that letting you retire is like letting go of all the gold in Ghana?

Wow, time has flown by too quickly. It seems like only yesterday that I remember meeting you as you welcomed me with open arms on my first day at G.I.S. Since my very first day working with you, I have realized what a blessing you are to the entire G.I.S. community. You are the type of person that people look for in a leader. Someone who will support you when times are difficult, push you when you need to be pushed and to cheer you on when you are being successful. It has been an honour to work with you and learn from all your experiences over the past several years. You have accomplished so much in your time at G.I.S. You have helped make the Infant school the best place for children to build a foundation and begin their journey on the path to lifelong learning.

I pray that your retirement brings you much enjoyment and time to pursue whatever your heart desires. I hope you continue to achieve many successes in your life and spread kindness wherever you go. Until we meet again may God continue to bless you every day.

LOVE, EMILY GROGAN-ADI - TEACHER, CLASS 1 VIOLET

In the many years you have been with Ghana International School, you have made an undeniable difference. CONGRATULATIONS! It would not be the same without you. Your hard work, dedication and achievements may never be matched. Thank you for setting standards for everyone at the Infant School to follow. You have done so much for us that we could never list it all in one place. Thank you for all the great memories. Your contributions to our work will never be forgotten. Thank you for being a mentor, friend and one of the hardest workers we know of. You will be remembered for the genuine love you had for the children and their families. You know them by name and can tell others something about each child in your care. When a child is sick, you quickly go to the wellness centre to comfort, support and help them in any way you can. Best of luck in your new adventure! Your retirement is well deserved but you will be sorely missed. Enjoy having time to do all the things you have always wanted to do with great joy! Wishing you good health, happiness and success as you move forward. May this next chapter of your life be everything you want it to be! Whatever comes next for you may it bring grace and fulfilled results. May you find ways to continue to share your wealth of knowledge and experience with those around you. Enjoy your retirement!

MARY MENSAH-AGGREY, TEACHER, CLASS 2 DAISY

I will always remember the love, patience and belief that Ms.Owu has towards every child; It is Mosaic. Ms.Owu reminds us that the biggest picture is created from the smallest acts of consistent kindness. My experience of working closely with Ms.Owu is that she has an optimistic vision for every child's future, hence she lays the values and growth mindset that will prove to be life lasting. Ms. Owu has been a visionary and a beautiful light in so many lives, serving in her capacity as Infant School Vice Principal. Above all for me she has been an inspirational leader, an absolute treasure and an honour to work with. A woman of immense understanding of children. One who keeps a simple principle at the fore; it's all about giving our best service and love to all of the children. Every child is to be set up for greatness and good success. In your retirement Ms. Owu: I wish you impeccable health, endless days of peace, fun, creativity, joy, liberty and daily fulfillment. I can imagine you enjoying the continued discipline of being a lifelong teacher; learner and mentor of the heart. Thank you for being a protective and caring mother, and mentor to us all. You have inspired children and teachers alike; to make that X factor all about the excellence of personal compassionate integrity. Thank you for our lesson. We shall all miss your beautiful reassuring Smile. Your legacy has been imprinted on our hearts. AYEKOO! Your achievements have been far reaching and most outstanding. May God Bless you always Ms.Owu.

Rare Disease Day

Rare Disease Day is celebrated on the last day of February every year all over the world. The main objective of Rare Disease Day is to raise awareness about rare diseases and its impact on patients and their families.

In support of the day, on Friday 28th February, 2020 the entire Infant School community came to school wearing blue jeans, a white t-shirt with a touch of pink and had their hands painted with bright colours for a group photo. They later participated in a brief child friendly presentation and discussion on rare diseases.

To commemorate the day, a blanket of Edelweiss flowers will be made in Belgium where Linda Van De Sande (a former Infant School Art teacher whose son was diagnosed with WAGR Syndrome, a rare disease) comes from and lives with her husband Godwin and son Dylan.

In light of this, Mrs. Emily Grogan-Adi (Class1 Violet Teacher) worked with all the Infant School pupils to put together a beautiful paper flower blanket made with a combination of white flowers called Edelweiss (the national flower of Austria and Switzerland) and pink and white Impala Lily or Mole Flowers Ghana's national flower. At GIS we strive to ensure each member of our community demonstrates 'Understanding of Each Other' and shows respect for diversity that promotes respect for persons with different abilities (GIS Educational Objective # 3).

Well done Infant School for a well thought through celebration in support of Rare Disease Day!

The Junior School began the 2019-2020 Academic Year embracing the chosen school attribute of this academic year: "Being Socially Responsible". Additionally we decided to add a huge dose of the concept of kindness to this attribute.

Being Kind to ourselves in thought, word and deed; being kind towards others and being kind to our environment. We made a commitment to align ourselves and as the year progressed, we did our part to accomplish and aim to meet our Vision 2020 in many ways. The Kindness Challenge spearheaded by the Guidance Department allowed us to further work towards our goal as we joined thousands of children around the world who also committed to showing kindness to their fellow peers.

We welcomed our new Assistant Vice-Principal, Mrs. Jennifer Blankson to her new post as well as a number of unfamiliar faces in different year groups (as is customary). A new club, a Talent Showcase and an additional extra-curricular activity was added to our section.

The Twi Pilot programme was introduced as a club. It was quickly embraced by several of our students and has been a hit. Additionally, the ICT After-School club was also introduced at all grade levels; with coding and robotics on the forefront of their minds, our students remained engaged for an additional hour after school.

In our effort to celebrate and showcase the diverse non-academic interests and talents within the Junior School, the "Talent Showcase" was born. Held during assembly time every two months, students honed their skills, in dance, spoken word, singing, gymnastics, playing an instrument to name a few, whilst demonstrating stage presence and for some coming out of their shell to surprise us all!

Sports has always been a favourite in the Junior School and we continued to see more and more students engaged in several different sporting activities on and off campus. Our incredible athletes brought home awards and trophies to share with the community of which they are noisily celebrated.

A number of our students also participated in Rubrix Cube and Chess Competitions across Accra. Chess has now become such a hit so much so that a giant outdoor Chess board is currently on order to be used during our regular playtimes.

The PTA first ever "Go Green Bazaar" was in line with our commitment to being kind to our environment. It was hosted in the Primary School with visible recycling bins and limited usage of single-use plastics promoted. Students were also given an opportunity to create a house banner related to the environment. It was a successful event and a great reminder of our vision to be kind and socially responsible.

*A new chapter and adventure opened up
for us...*

Some classes visited the Trashy Bags Factory where they learned more about the recycling of plastics into several everyday products. Challenging them to think creatively about how they too can better use everyday items. Other classes visited Weija Dam as per tradition to learn more about the importance of dams in storing water, generating electricity and controlling flooding.

The annual celebration of Stone Age Day, Egypt Day and China Day took off without a hitch and students enhanced their knowledge in various fun learning activities in and out of the classrooms.

The joint Carols Night with the Secondary School was another successful demonstration of collaboration whilst celebrating one of many customs.

The 14th Annual Toyota Dream Car Art Competition took place and several Junior School students participated as part of the total 1,850 artwork submissions. 10 Junior School students were shortlisted as being part of the 120 winners.

A Special Assembly took place to celebrate Ghana Day. Students came attired in colours representing the flag and students shared different aspects of our wonderful nation. From the characteristics of the different regions, to fashion and the explaining the design of the flag. It was discovered during the assembly attended by Dr. Ashun, our Principal, that the designer of the flag was her relative!

Due to the onset of the Covid-19 Pandemic, school as we knew it changed face. The planned Progression tests were put on hold along with the Cambridge Primary Checkpoint exams which were subsequently cancelled.

A new chapter and adventure opened up for us in the way of the Virtual Learning Environment (VLE) which we ran successfully for two weeks prior to the scheduled Easter Break. Students, parents and teachers migrated into a new world of virtual learning and so it continues...

A word of gratitude to the incredible faculty, supportive parents and adventurous Junior School students who make it a true joy to come to work each day to serve and to lead.

Ayekoo!

Speech

AND PRIZE GIVING DAY

Junior School's Speech and Prize Giving Day. What you may have missed!

The 2018/2019 annual speech and prize giving day was on Tuesday, 25th June 2019, at the Junior School's assembly hall. The event started on nine o'clock but the students started filling in the assembly hall by eight thirty.

Students of Ghana International school, parents and special guests participated in the event. Prizes were awarded to each year group. Students waited with eager anticipation to find out if they would get prizes and be on the honour roll. Some were excited to hear their names called out, others were inspired to work harder next year to get one. First, there was a performance from the traditional dancers in the Junior School with accompaniment of the drums. They showcased local dance moves and routines from the various regions of Ghana. They led the honourable special guests, the keynote speaker Mrs. Priscilla Koranteng-Gyasi, our dear Vice Principal Ms. Nadia Bruce-Muller and invited members from the G.I.S. P.T.A. and alumni. Then, it was followed by a warm welcome and the singing of the Ghanaian national anthem and the G.I.S. school song by our presenters Mr. Mensah and Mrs. Appiah.

Next, Ms. Bruce-Muller was invited to give the welcome speech and introduce our keynote speaker who was born to a big family of seven children! We found out that she graduated from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. She was also the mother of the student who was our Junior School's Head Girl - Michaela! After the speech by Mrs. Gyasi, the prize giving began.

Some of the awards given out included: the best behaved student, 1st and 2nd class prize, PE prize, best athlete, Maths, English, French, Science, History, Geography and many more. For each year group, a different parent was given the honour of awarding the prizes to the winners. The prizes were awarded by year group Starting from Year 3 upwards. Some people got as many as seven or eight prizes! Students were surprised and amazed to hear their name mentioned because they had not been informed whether they were getting a prize or not. After that, there were special prizes given to some Year 6s who had worked very hard and showed exemplary behaviour throughout the three terms. The prizes were for the overall year group, not only class.

The special prizes were given by a sponsored parent who took care of buying the prizes and wrapping it up. There was also a V.P.'s special prize awarded to a boy and a girl who had shown exemplary behaviour throughout the year. They were awarded to Jerome Parkes and Lila Favilli. 4 NKOMO PA TERM 1 2019/20 After the prizes, was the honour roll. There are three different categories, gold (90%-100%), Silver (85%-89%), and the bronze (80%-84%). The certificates were given to students who had performed very well throughout the academic year. In the end, the presenters said goodbye and we started filing away from the assembly hall.

The event ended at twelve thirty noon. Parents/guardians were given permission to pick up their children and collect exam papers as it was also open day for the Junior School. This year's speech and prize giving day was surely a success! Next year will surely be even better!

UN Week

Junior School's United Nations week was packed with mind blowing UN related learning opportunities. It was fascinating to see pupils confidently recite all 17 SDGs at the end of the week. They really learnt a great deal and this certainly was a fun learning experience for them as members of the Model UN (MUN) club at the secondary school came over to educate them.

Club members engaged students by involving them in an 'SDG slip' treasure hunt competition, poster competition for which they were awarded prizes based on their creativity and effective communication. They then went on to anchor an insightful UN-based assembly where confident pupils who correctly recited the various SDGs also won prizes. The entire week was brought to a cheerful end as Junior school staff and pupils went on a parade, dancing in their brightly coloured national costumes on the football pitch within the parameters of their section in celebration of the day. Well done Junior School and Happy UN Week!

19/20 Prefects

Congratulations to Junior School's newly elected 2019-2020 Prefects.

Have you ever wondered how presidents got to be presidents? Well usually, it all starts when they are in school and they get leadership positions/roles. This academic year, G.I.S. held its annual Junior School prefect elections on Thursday 26th of September 2019. This year, letters were given to various students, giving them the exciting news that they had been nominated as the prefects for the 2019/2020 academic year! The nominees were ordered to compose a persuasive speech, convincing pupils to vote for them, as well as teachers. Nominees were given about two days to practice their speeches and fill out their application forms which determine if they will become a prefect or not. Children were told that they would read it to the whole school at a special prefect assembly. The wait felt long and exasperating though it was only a two day period. Everyone was working hard to make their speeches as successful as possible. Application forms were filed and nominees chatted about who was to get the title of Head Girl and Head Boy. At last, the day arrived. As the school day started out bright and early on a Thursday morning, prefect nominees for Year 6 filled into the Junior School assembly hall sitting, eagerly waiting for their turn to read out their speeches. Each nominee had high hopes that they would win the opportunity to help lead the Junior School. All twenty-two nominees climbed the stage for the voters to hear what they had written.

It was a week before the results of the voting was announced. Finally, the results came. The Head Girl was Maame Akua Koduah-Sarpong and the Head Boy was Adam Walker. Then, they were followed by the Assistant Head Boy and Girl. They were followed by the eight prefects, (4 girls, 4 boys). Sports and House Prefects were also announced. After the swearing in of the prefects, Our Head Boy and Head Girl gave an appreciative speech on behalf of the new prefect body. Prefects were ecstatic and enjoyed several picture taking sessions. Congratulations to all badge holders!

End Poverty Day (EPD) 2019

To mark International Day for the Eradication of Poverty -End Poverty Day (EPD) 2019, the WorldBank in conjunction with the United Nations hosted several events in various countries around the World under the theme "Ending Learning Poverty - Getting every child to read and understand by age ten".

An invitation was extended to our Junior School Prefects to attend and participate in the in-country dialogue session.

It was indeed another unique learning experience for our Prefects and as they eagerly shared their gained knowledge with their peers as inspired leaders

Congratulations Maame Adwoa!

During the summer break, Junior School's Year 5 Pupil, Maame Adjoa Nduom published her first book. The book 'Adventurous Akosua' was inspired by her passion for sanitation and social responsibility.

In her book, the main character Akosua, goes around giving advice to people on how to keep Ghana clean. She was happy and excited to share her story with Ghana and the world especially because her aim to get the world to be a safer and cleaner environment is gradually being met.

Congratulations Maame Adwoa! GIS is proud of you! We hope Maame's story will inspire you to be socially responsible.

Essay Awards!

2019 Queen's Commonwealth Essay Awards!

The awards were divided into three parts; gold, silver and bronze categories. Winners of these awards were called up on stage to receive their certificates from the special guests. Participants who did not get a category award received the participation award. These children had their names read out and were acknowledged for their efforts by being asked to stand up. Various students from different year groups got an award. Dr. Mary Ashun - our Principal mentioned that Elise, a Form 2 student, received the overall second place prize. That means her essay was the second best out of all the entries submitted from students in Commonwealth countries all over the world. What an achievement! G.I.S. is very proud of her.

Her prize includes a trip to London with the chance of meeting the Queen of England in Buckingham Palace!

Dr. Ashun stated that she was very proud of the school for entering the Commonwealth Essay Competition and even though some of our essays did not make it so far, every student in G.I.S. is a winner. This assembly inspired all of us to try even harder to create brilliant essays for the next competition.

Stone Age

On the Stone Age Activity Day, there were lots of activities. Our first activity took place in the assembly hall, where we had a Stone Age quiz.

The Stone Age quiz was amazing! There were questions about fire and more. The second activity I did was jewellery making out of seashells. You could make a headband or a necklace. I made a headband with yellow string. There was blue string, green string, yellow string and red string. The next activity was colouring.

We each drew an old Stone Age animal then coloured it in. I drew a woolly mammoth. As I was colouring, Ms. Frimpong read a wonderful poem about the Stone Age. After the poem, off I went to the next activity.

The next activity I did was stone painting. I painted a giraffe on a stone then put it down to dry. I wandered around before I went for the last activity of the day. It was making weapons. I got a stick with red paint then threw it on the board. That was the last activity.

The whole day was so much fun. It was as if we were really in the Stone Age. It was really fun. I wish I could do it again.

Talent Showcase Assembly

G.I.S. has got Talent!.

On the 28th of November 2019, the Junior School had its first talent showcase assembly. This assembly took place at the Junior School Assembly Hall and proud parents, teachers, fellow students, the V.P. (Ms. Nadia Bruce-Muller) and the A.V.P. (Mrs. Jennifer Blankson) gathered to watch talented students perform on stage. This assembly was a fantastic opportunity for students to showcase their non academic talents and interests. Students from various year groups took part in the assembly. There was a wide variety of talents on display. These included: playing the piano, gymnastics, weightlifting, playing the violin, spoken word, rapping and taekwondo. The Junior School roared with excitement when two Year 4s rapped on stage. The Junior School definitely enjoyed this particular assembly but what about the performers themselves? Well, Krishiv said, "I really enjoyed the talent assembly." Rhia said "I was a bit nervous but I enjoyed the talent assembly." Helena said, "I was nervous but confident in a way." It seems that everyone loved the talent assembly. It was great fun! The Junior School is very happy with this talent assembly and are even demanding for another one. All in all, whether watching or performing, all students enjoyed the talent assembly. This assembly proved that G.I.S. has got talent! Who will be on stage next?

Lower

How wonderful it is that nobody need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.” – Anne Frank.

The 2019-2020 Academic Year commenced with much promise and excitement as we embraced our key phrase for the year: “Being Socially Responsible”. This implied we had to do things differently in a bid to realize our 2020 Vision.

Our customary Form One and new student orientation in August heralded these new, culturally diverse individuals into the school. The revised format of orientation saw parents observe a display of students’ creative works and fostered interaction with Heads of Departments prior to the formal event to get a sense of offerings in the Key Stage 3 English National Curriculum. The guitar and music performance by two Lower Secondary students highlighted an aspect of our extracurricular array, which purposes to achieve a holistic education and shape our students’ personalities.

The variety of co-curricular activities, sports and musical ventures affords them opportunities for growth at their own pace in a safe, nurturing environment. Lower secondary students also participated and performed creditably in the ISSAG Swimming, Basketball, Hockey and Table Tennis Competitions. The programme went very well, with its concluding pointers on survival in the Secondary School allaying students’ apprehension.

United Nations Day was celebrated uniquely this year as some of our Form 3 students joined Upper Secondary students in a mock Model UN Conference as part of their social responsibility to educate all on SDG 13 - Climate Action. With Pomp and Pageantry, students representing different countries, donned their national costumes to deliver speeches on the cause and effect and explain what individuals could do to mitigate the effects of Climate Change! Dr. Mary Ashun, our Principal, and the Hon. Zanetor Agyeman-Rawlings, member of the Ghana Parliament for Klottey-Korle Constituency planted trees to commemorate the “Plant a 1000 trees Campaign”, and students were also encouraged to bring/buy a sapling to plant.

It was a real thrill, having our Form 2 students join Vodafone Ghana to plant trees in the Achimota Forest as part of our Corporate Social Responsibility and Leadership Day Activities for the 7th Year running! In previous years we have planted trees in neighbouring less endowed local Schools.

In realizing our Vision 2020 we were guided by kindness in our social interactions and this served as the bedrock of our efforts to improve the community.

‘50 Random Acts of Kindness’ was initiated and implemented by staff and students during the Random Acts of Kindness (RAK) week. Despite initial scepticism, participation was heart-warming and it was immensely fulfilling to reach out to others!

“The Voice”, our monthly e-newsletter, reflects the different programmes organized and showcases students’ talents through their articles, poems and features. We hope you continue to find it enjoyable for many years to come. Ayekoo to the Voice Team who work tirelessly to put it out!

Unfortunately, the second term was truncated with the onset of the Coronavirus global pandemic which, however, enabled us to fully exploit the Virtual Learning environment.

Kudos to all teachers for embracing the Virtual Learning environment and making us proud!

I feel very fortunate to work with you; you are an inspiration!
To the many dedicated, committed, caring and innovative staff members, Gracias!

We also extend our sincere gratitude to all parents for their cooperation and support during this stressful period.

Finally, I want to thank all the students for their much appreciated contribution and significant role they play in taking the School to greater heights.

Our Partnership makes us strong!

Congratulations All!!!

Rites of Passage

Form 1 Initiation

The heavy downpour didn't stop the stampede as students raced to the assembly hall on Friday 27th September to watch the highly anticipated Form one initiation ceremony. Students were on the edge of their seats hoping to catch a glimpse of the Form ones as they paraded enthusiastically towards the assembly hall.

It all began with the roaring traditional Haka dance from a group of energetic young boys. When the anonymous boys in all black blessed the stage, we truly knew that this initiation was about to be a banger!!!! Busting down, whooping and shooting were a few of the famous dance moves they performed to get the crowd hyped. The harmony group was next with a Shallow by Lady Gaga singalong. The ceremony had students sing along to songs like Lay me down and the Summer anthem by Sam Smith, Senorita by Shawn Mendes and Camila Cabello. But wait, it didn't end there. The real hot girls brought the heat to the stage, giving us all Burna vibes' We don carry belle. The girls, dressed in all white, also grooved to another summer jam, Dumebi, by Rema. The assembly hall could be described as a jungle as soon as the Penthouse by YungJimbo performance began. It was truly out of this world!!! We rode till we couldn't any more; when Old town road blasted the hall, it got students jumping out of their seats. The crowd was definitely set ablaze when two young boys boldly performed the hit song of Kwesi Arthur, Nobody.

Sadly, we know all good things must come to an end; hence, the programme ended on a climax with an electrifying singalong moment with For life by Nicki Minaj. Now we can proudly say that these Form one students have officially been welcomed into our Secondary School.

Celebrating Libraries in a Digital World

Knowing the importance of reading, the Library department in collaboration with the school's administration took one week in October and dubbed it Library Week.

For the week, the Library was transformed by green and white streamers and balloons which lured students to take part in the event. The library department provided many activities to engage students. Their creativity was displayed as they were given the resources to recreate their favourite novels through posters, but that was just one activity.

For each day of Library Week, students were given the opportunity to win a $25 iTunes gift card through their participation in a special scavenger hunt in the Library. The idea of reading was incorporated in this extraordinary week, as always, by students being able to purchase books they were interested in from a stand next to the administration block.

The Library team truly didn't disappoint, and we can't wait for what they come up with next.

What's Your Mental Health Status?

Mental Health Week

Prior the GIS-PTA Annual Sponsored Walk, GIS decided to dedicate an entire week to raising awareness for Mental Health from Monday 7th October to Friday 11th October.

Students across various sections were extremely excited as they eagerly participated in a range of activities lined up for the week. Form one students made a list of certain things that stressed them out, while the Form two students put in writing the things that they did to relieve stress. These notes were displayed on the "How full is your cup" board by a few lower six formers.

The highlight of the week, however, was Odd Socks day, which was held on Wednesday 9th October. The students in both Primary and Secondary Schools couldn't contain their joy as they were finally allowed to wear any type of socks they desired in support of Mental health. And with this, they got to express themselves freely. Staff also enjoyed participating in this awareness campaign and also took to showing off their coloured socks.

The week climaxed with a talk from Dr. Kwadwo Obeng, the acting director of Ankaful Hospital and a former student of GIS, during our weekly Friday Assembly at the Senior School. Students actively participated in the discussion and learned more about raising awareness for mental health and how to deal with depression.

It was truly an eventful week.

Tree Planting

Tree Planting

This year, 14th February was not only known as the day set aside for love but it was also marked as a day for planting trees in our bid to restore the earth.

We collaborated with Vodafone on that cool beautiful day at the Achimota Forest to do this. Upon arrival at the planting site, Form 2 and Lower 6th Form students beamed with joy as they were handed disposable face masks. Along with their teachers, they proceeded to be divided into groups of ten (10) each under the supervision of one teacher. Ignoring the scorching hot sun, students enthusiastically picked up and planted seedlings, showing their dedication to reversing the problem of deforestation.

This activity was set up in order to contribute to the school's newly announced goal, which is to plant a thousand trees, while teaching students the importance of caring for their environment.

Leadership Day

GIS Leadership Day is an annual event specifically designed for Form 2 Students to equip them with the necessary skills required to take up leadership roles in Form 3. The event brings together experts to meet enthusiastic students and staff in a fun interactive learning setting.

This year's event themed My World: My Responsibility provided students an opportunity to explore their leadership styles and strategies and build meaningful life-long connections with their peers, while fostering an understanding of different cultures.

Our Guest Speaker, Ms. Jessica Opare Saforo (Head of Programmes- CitiTV and CitiFM), shared her experiences in the media - a very dynamic space these days. She inspired our young soon-to-be leaders to always be themselves and take up the right attitude as students to become exemplary leaders. She highlighted essential qualities of a good leader and talked about the use of various social media platforms positively, encouraging them to work towards becoming great role models in society.

A special thank you to our sponsor, Data Bank, and Mrs. Gillian Hammah (Chief Marketing Officer for Databank Group) for sharing her rich financial expertise with students and equipping them with smart ways of becoming financially independent.

And finally we would like to express our profound appreciation to Ms. Ida Abbeyquaye (Vice Principal for Lower Secondary), Staff, Teachers and everyone who helped in diverse ways to make this experience memorable.

To our students who have been equipped with 21st Century leadership skills, effective communication and ethical decision making abilities we hope that you will influence each other and others positively as you aspire for greatness.

Ghana Day!

God Bless Our Homeland Ghana!

The 5th of March 2020 marked GIS's annual Ghana Day celebrations. It was a day the entire school looked forward to, as it was one of the rare occasions used to portray and celebrate Ghana's Independence as well as our beautiful culture. Students and teachers swarmed to the assembly hall in stunning African print clothes made with the most intricate and delicate patterns and details. The assembly started off with Nana Afia Addae introducing the program. Following that, Lee Akosa led the school to sing Ghana's national anthem. Next, Khushi Nesarikar gave us a brief history of how the Gold Coast was renamed Ghana. The atmosphere was filled with excitement as the reenactment of the Declaration of Ghana's Independence took place with the Big Six mounting the stage led by Kevin Sinclair who played the role of Osagyefo Dr Kwame Nkrumah thundered the famous Independence declaration speech. The buzz did not stop there. More students displayed their dancing skills through popular dance renditions and gave us inspiring poetry recitals. The Assembly was crowned off with a fashion show that got the crowd jumping out of their seats. This year's Ghana Day Celebration was spectacular, and we can't wait to have more celebrations. Happy Birthday Ghana!

The year started with our expectations of enjoying all the usual activities for the year. This was the year of achieving all types of Visions and plans. From September to Mid-March, we went through Open Day, (School) Spirit Week, Initiation Assembly, Parent Teacher Conferences/Meetings, UN Week, Prefects Elections, Midterms, Exams and Mocks.

What were the highlights of this unusual year?

MISE COMPETITION: Our students made us truly proud by winning top trophies in this year's MISE Competition. Incidentally we have been excelling at this since 2015. Roni Edwin (Lower 6) won the FKA Allotey Award for Excellence in Maths while Russell Fiscian (Lower 6) received this year's Yale Science and Engineering Award for Excellence in Computer Engineering for his Machine Learning Security Project. Many other students also received honourable mention.

SPORTS DAY: We are happy to commend all the Houses for their energetic input and proud to single out the unique performance of Purple House who moved from the last position in the previous year to the first position this year. Special Congratulations to the House Captains; Devante Akuffo and Zora Brobbey for their sterling leadership.

MUN CONFERENCE: GIS hosted about 400 delegates from international schools in Ghana and representatives from Liberia. The unique aspect of this conference was that it was fully planned and executed by a committee of mainly Sixth form students led by Jonathan Ashun. We are truly proud of them and commend their patrons for pulling off such an excellent feat. Real preparation for the future!

A Most Unusual

ISSAG: This year, the Girls' 4x100 team won the gold medal for the first time in over five years. Two of our students, Zaneta Otoo (Lower 6) and Saffron Bailes (Form 4) broke the 100m record. Saffron also won the 200m race. Congratulations to them and to the Sports teachers! We are also happy to announce the receipt of jerseys for the Basketball team from some members of the Alumni represented by Papa Osei (Class of 2009).

UNIVERSITY ACCEPTANCES: This has been a difficult year globally but many of our Upper Six students still received acceptances into many US and Canadian universities. These include UPenn, McGill, University of Toronto, York, Duke, and Boston University among others. We await news from UK and Ghanaian universities.

CORONA: A VIRAL VIRUS: Our year of course, was rudely interrupted by a most unwelcome and strange visitor. The Coronavirus truncated our Mocks, disrupted our Musical, put off our Kwame Pianim debate, scuttled our plans for our Prom and has held hostage our end of year exams and Speech Day and Graduation Ceremony. For the first time ever, the May/June IGCSE and A LEVEL Examinations have been cancelled. It also placed uncertainty on our Term three.

VIRTUAL LEARNING EXPERIENCE (VLE) TO THE RESCUE: The whole school however quickly recalibrated. The Principal put together a VLE team; VPs and VLE team are working round the clock to support and provide direction; Tech champions and Heads of Department are all working to ensure that the on-campus classes are successfully carried online.

FORGING ON: And so we press on with masks, sanitizers, social distancing, and lockdown protocols (partial or total).

Thanks to all for a "never say die" attitude. To the Board and Management for leadership, to the gallant teachers for making the transition and to the many parents who have kept urging us on.

All aboard GIS! ...Upper Secondary, upwards and forward! ... This too shall pass!

“I’m a Presidential Candidate”

Each year, students are eager to elect a fresh batch of prefects into power, and this year was no exception. From the start of second term, the teachers and the outgoing prefects ensured that throughout vetting only the best candidates were selected.

For several days, every single notice board in the school was flooded with campaign posters, and the aspirants didn't fail to voice their ideas each and every minute they got.

On Wednesday 29th February

2020 at 12:45 pm, students raced towards the assembly hall to witness the annual presentation of manifestos.

The bold aspirants mounted the stage and sat according to the positions that they were aspiring for. For the first time this year, the SRC aspirants for the presidential position were given the opportunity to express their ideas to the student body.

Each candidate was given the chance to inform us about his or her ideas in a creative and innovative way, and none of them failed to impress the crowd. Through their speeches, dances and skits, the aspirants triggered deafening screams and applauses from the students.

Then, the highly anticipated day had finally arrived. On Thursday 30th February 2020, students voted for the persons they believed were right for the various positions. Throughout the day, the aspirants were extremely anxious. At 3:10, the entire school rushed to the film room to get the certified results to calm their nerves. The atmosphere was tense as peers waited nervously outside the room. At the end of it all, screams were heard and tears were shed as the new prefect body was revealed.

Congratulations to the prefects that were elected, as we know that the journey wasn't easy.

We only hope that they carry out their ideas in order to make GIS a better place.

Swearing-in Ceremony of 2020/2021 prefects

Congratulations to our newly elected Secondary School Prefects!

The past couple of weeks saw prospective candidates vying for leadership positions, go through intense vetting, rally up convincing campaigns and 'enjoy' nerve-racking moments as they waited anxiously for votes to be cast and decisions to be made.

It takes a courageous heart to assume a leadership position. For that, we applaud all those who put themselves out there as prospective leaders inspired to make a difference and we say Ayekoo!!

To our newly elected 2020-2021 Prefects, we wish you all the best as you offer yourselves to be committed to life at GIS in roles of example and leadership. We look forward to you fulfilling your roles with integrity, gentleness, and courage as you work together as a team.

We say a big thank you to the outgoing prefects for a wonderful work done and to all the teachers who helped in making this entire democratic process a success.

Purple reign!

School Spirit is at an all time high in GIS, and this year's sports day didn't fail in revealing that. On Tuesday 18th February 2020 every student was dropped off at the El-Wak Stadium dressed in their house colours anxiously awaiting the start of the event in order to find out which house will be crowned the champions.

A week before Sports day, as per new tradition, there was an inter-house notice board competition. Each house presented brilliant ideas all centring their house icons and mascot. This year blue house took the W, as they truly displayed that they are indeed little Einsteins. Due to their win, they gained extra points towards sports day.

On the Monday before sports day, some field events took place on the school field.

Some students took part in shot put and discuss and all these points were added to houses.

No GIS event could commence without the school song, hence around 8am, Mr Amponsah Mensah gave the go ahead for all houses to begin their parade after the school song had been sung. After that, sports day was a GO.

Multiple events took place at the same time. Whilst some students participated in javelin others were doing long jump, at the same time runners from each house were competing forefinger against one another in the various races.

Gallery

Sports Day!

Despite the scorching sun, the noise from the students from the pavilions was ear shattering as they supported the house members who were competing against each other in the races. This year the organisers ensured that each student participated effectively, as a result each house had to come with a chant. The judges were amazed by the energy and the excitement with which the students cheered to gain points for their house.

After the chant, the rest of the events followed on a lower note and at this point the champions of the day was still very uncertain as the races that took place had a different winner from each house.

The day climaxed when Monsieur Abloso announced the winners for each race in order for them to accept their medals. Despite all the effort from each and every house there could only be one victor and this year Purple house were the proud champions. We can only wonder if they will remain champions next year.

International Emerging Leaders Conference (All School)

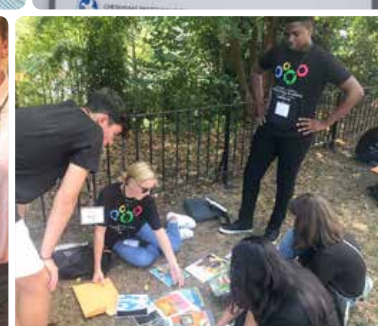

The following students Ousman Jobe (Lower 6th Form), Shambhavi Verma (Lower 6th Form), Leilani Rawlings (Form 4) and Nigel Sarpong (Form 4) represented GIS and Ghana at the 9th Annual International Emerging Leaders Conference; organized and hosted by the Collegiate School in Richmond, Virginia-USA.

The conference was focused on "The Global Economy and Environment", and hosted students from around the world including Ghana. They were tasked to explore the topic (The Global Economy and Environment) from a variety of disciplines such as green technology, environmental science, ethics, communication, business, marketing, and economics. Delegates worked on group projects in multinational teams and exchanged ideas. They also had the opportunity to meet renowned scholars from leading universities.

This is the second time GIS is participating in the Emerging Leaders Conference. Participating in events such as these fall under our Strategic Goal 1 & 4, where we continue to look for ways to enrich our student learning experiences. Our students were chaperoned by Ms. Omosede Eholor (one of our College and Career Counsellors).

We would like to say thank you to our Upper Secondary VP, AVP, the entire team of the Counseling Department as well as the Student Activities Coordinator for making this possible.

Climate Change

September 20th marks the beginning of a week-long #ClimateChange campaign. It's #GlobalClimateStrike day and even though students were unable to leave school, they still joined people around the world to protest the lack of action by our political leaders regarding climate change. Students used their break time to demonstrate within the secondary school grounds.

During their 'A' Level Economics class, students discussed environmental destruction as a consequence of development because construction, industrial activities, and mining can pollute the air, poison our water bodies and destroy our forests. With support from their Teachers, they were keen on being a part of this campaign.

Let's continue to do whatever it takes to draw attention to the need to save our environment.

Let's be more conscious and environmentally aware.

If it cannot be reused, then we must refuse!

Let's reduce the number of plastics we use in order to make the environment better for the future.

GIS Model United Nations (MUN) Conference

Gallery

Model
UN

We witnessed the opening of the 2019 GIS Model United Nations(MUN) conference. One may ask, what exactly is MUN? MUN is an extracurricular activity that aims to emulate the United Nations in mock debates called conferences. Schools around the globe participate in MUN and their students enjoy it for many different reasons. However, whether they came to improve their public speaking, or broaden their global horizons, they are always positively transformed by the experience in some way shape or form. The focus this time was on the UN Sustainable Development Goal 16: "Peace, Justice, and Strong Institutions" and we are excited to host students from selected schools in Ghana.

Pair-Up Day

The last but most anticipated day of Spirit 3 had arrived. Students sauntered into the secondary school in matching, well thought out outfits, but the most iconic and creative group had to be the bold form 5 boys who portrayed the cast of the popular television series "Money Heist". They clearly stole the show as they paraded around the school in their bright red jumpsuits and Salvador Dali masks. It was a unique display of creativity, as they got numerous looks of approval from their peers and a few teachers. This year's Pair Up Day was definitely a memorable one.

A Plethora of Pink

On the 18th of October 2019, students flooded the school in rose, blushing pink and even blinding white colours to raise awareness for breast cancer. With their pink ribbons proudly pinned on their chests, students were obliged to donate to this worthy cause as their donations would go towards helping a distraught breast cancer patient.

In preparation to this day, lower secondary students displayed their creativity through posters that informed us all on breast cancer, the causes and how it could be prevented. The best posters were announced at assembly and after, proudly displayed on the notice boards.

The highlight of the entire day was a bake sale held by the Yearbook Club. Students were eager to purchase sweet pink iced cupcakes and cold, refreshing pink lemonade.

Pink Day was a huge success as everyone was educated on breast cancer and enough funds were raised to support a patient.

UN Week: From a Day to a Week

The Model United Nations club enthusiastically took over this event, deciding that one day would not be enough to truly celebrate United Nations Day. Therefore, the five days from Monday 21st Friday 25th October was dubbed UN Week.

This huge change was complemented with a few activities from our previously organized one day grand UN day event. Unfortunately, our beloved parade of the continents hosted annually by the Junior school, as well as the well anticipated food fair, was canceled, causing students to doubt the MUN's abilities to put together an equally befitting event. However, the club redeemed itself by educating the entire school on how the UN operates.

During the weekly Monday assembly, the Senior school students were enlightened on the terrible effects of plastics on the environment based on the 17 Sustainable Development Goals. A talk by two representatives from the UN was also organized. The Representatives engaged students by rewarding those who correctly answered questions. But this was just the start of the MUN's UN week vision.

On Wednesday 23rd October during clubs, UN week was continued with a poverty simulation session led by upper secondary school students, mostly Lower 6s. They created scenarios where they had to decide how to use limited funds to provide food, healthcare, education, transportation, etc. for a family of four. This simulation helped students attain some knowledge on how people living in absolute or relative poverty allocate their resources.

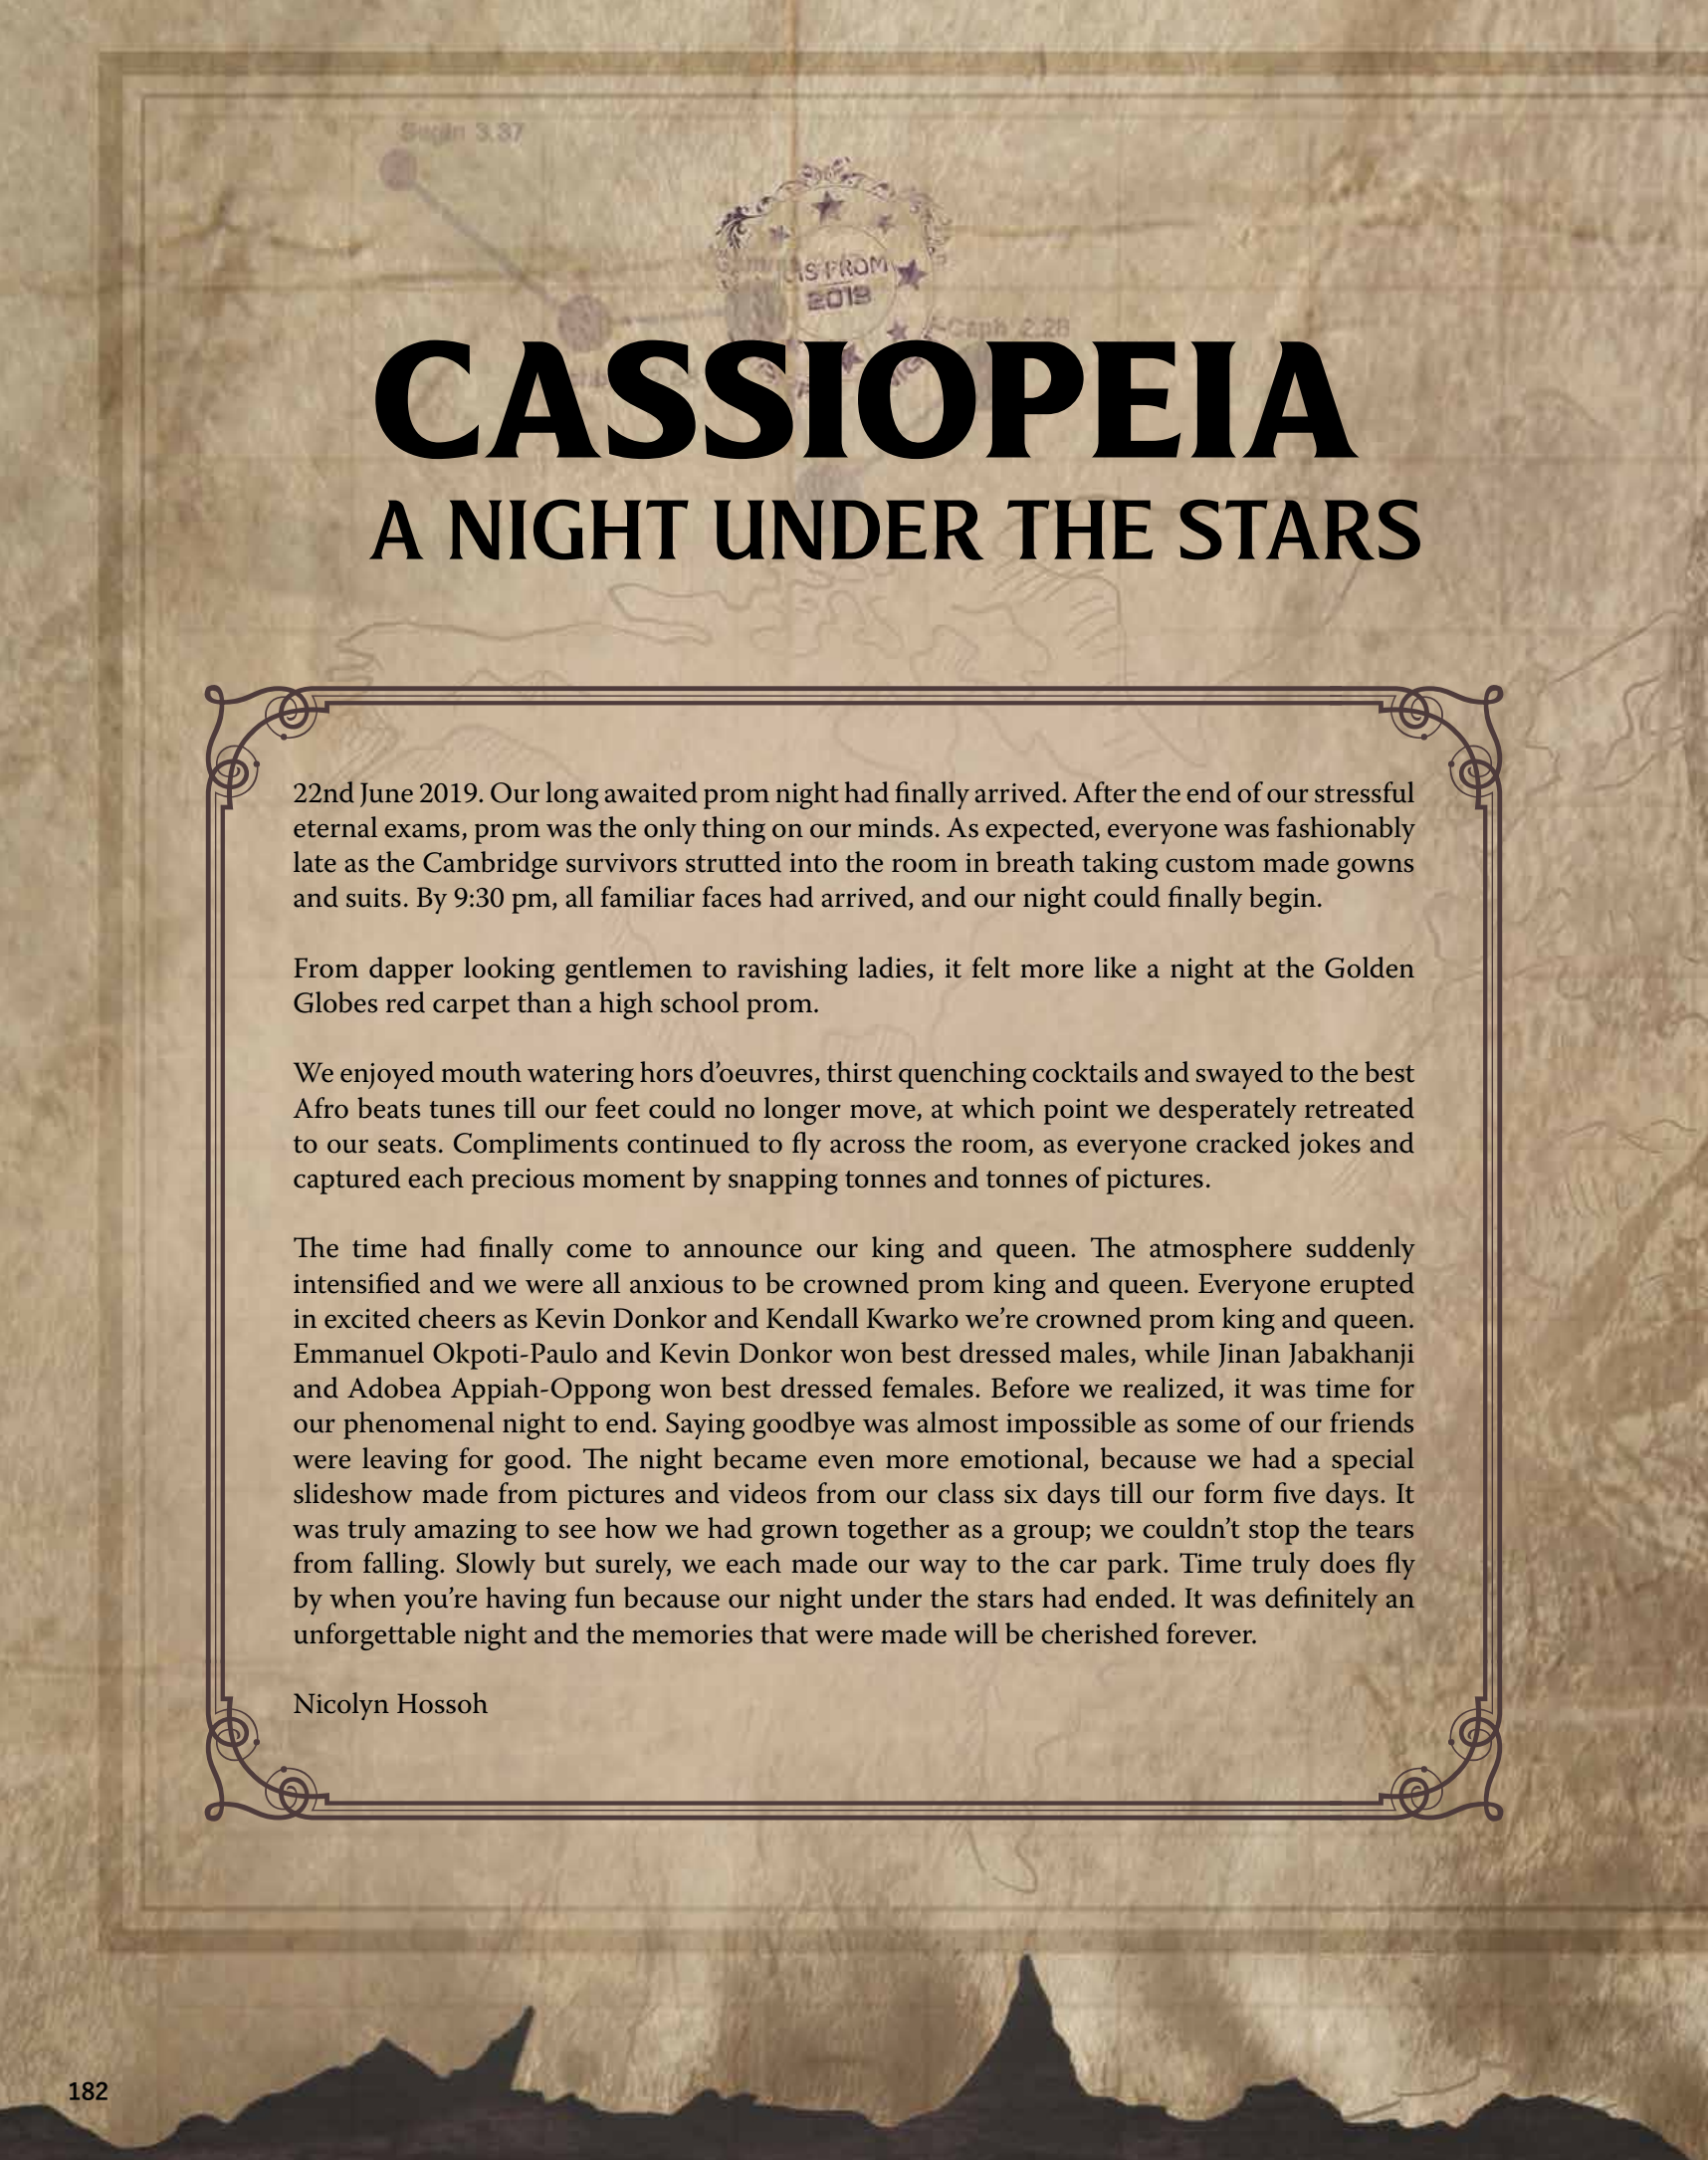

The main event, however, was on Friday where students strolled into school proudly representing their countries. Even though classes were held until 1pm, which is unusually the norm, students made the best of the situation and comported themselves in class. For the remaining two hours of school, the MUN conducted a special assembly in honor of UN Day, further demonstrating their dedication to the event. During this assembly, we were presented with a debate by the MUN club members on whether or not countries were taking actions to reduce the amount of plastics in our oceans. These students passionately fought one another on how each country was failing on the topic.

The day was brought to an end by launching our initiative as a school to make the world a better safer place by planting a 1000 trees by the end of the year. This was led by Dr. Mrs. Mary Ashun, the Principal of Ghana International School. This initiative falls in alignment with our goal to become more and more socially responsible. In summary, this new way of celebrating UN Day was very insightful, informative and worthwhile.

A NIGHT UNDER THE STARS

22nd June 2019. Our long awaited prom night had finally arrived. After the end of our stressful eternal exams, prom was the only thing on our minds. As expected, everyone was fashionably late as the Cambridge survivors strutted into the room in breath taking custom made gowns and suits. By 9:30 pm, all familiar faces had arrived, and our night could finally begin.

From dapper looking gentlemen to ravishing ladies, it felt more like a night at the Golden Globes red carpet than a high school prom.

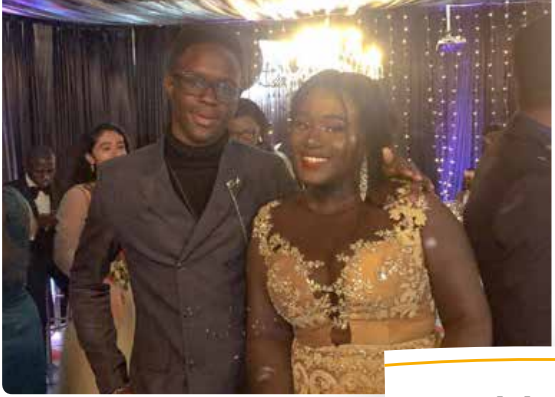

We enjoyed mouth watering hors d'oeuvres, thirst quenching cocktails and swayed to the best Afro beats tunes till our feet could no longer move, at which point we desperately retreated to our seats. Compliments continued to fly across the room, as everyone cracked jokes and captured each precious moment by snapping tonnes and tonnes of pictures.

The time had finally come to announce our king and queen. The atmosphere suddenly intensified and we were all anxious to be crowned prom king and queen. Everyone erupted in excited cheers as Kevin Donkor and Kendall Kwarko we're crowned prom king and queen. Emmanuel Okpoti-Paulo and Kevin Donkor won best dressed males, while Jinan Jabakhanji and Adobea Appiah-Oppong won best dressed females. Before we realized, it was time for our phenomenal night to end. Saying goodbye was almost impossible as some of our friends were leaving for good. The night became even more emotional, because we had a special slideshow made from pictures and videos from our class six days till our form five days. It was truly amazing to see how we had grown together as a group; we couldn't stop the tears from falling. Slowly but surely, we each made our way to the car park. Time truly does fly by when you're having fun because our night under the stars had ended. It was definitely an unforgettable night and the memories that were made will be cherished forever.

Prom
Nite

A day set aside for students to display their creativity.

Two days within spirit week set aside for students to display their creativity. Career Day fell on Wednesday 25th September and students arrived wearing varied Career Day costumes. We saw ambitious students attired in doctors' coats, judges' cloaks, pantsuits, and one creative individual even dressed as a Polo player. This day gave students the opportunity to explore their career options.

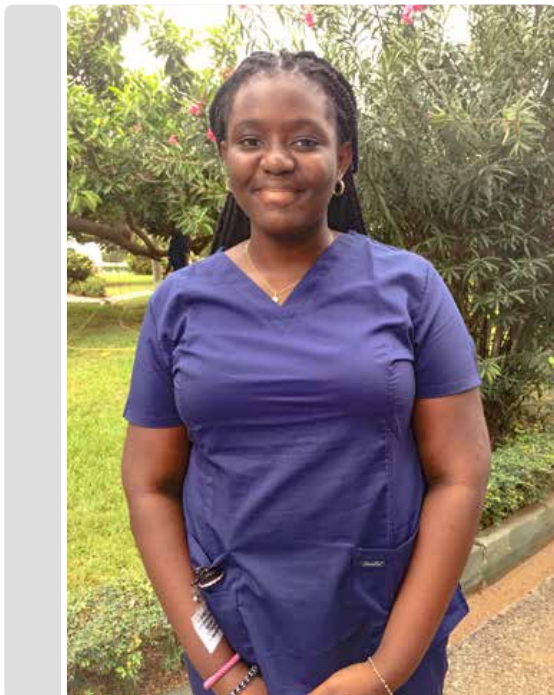

Then followed Theme day. Lower secondary students (Form 1's) arrived in school wearing checkerboard patterned clothes. Their theme blew many away because of the different yet unique ways in which they creatively worked the pattern into various outfits.

Upper Secondary students and Form 2's, came up with a simpler theme of black and white, which looked just as good. Form 3's, however, opted to wear Polo, and they looked exceptional. Looking equally stunning were the upper secondary Forms with the Form 4's brightening up the school in their neon attires, but the Form 5's proved that they were more imaginative by coming up with the theme gender reveal. This theme was expressed by the students wearing either pink or blue to show their gender. Additionally, the lower 6 theme, oversized, was well portrayed in numerous ways. Although the rest of the school had theme day, the Upper 6's stood out in their Pair Up Day outfits per usual. But, in all, each form's theme was excellently illustrated.

Red Day

Love is in the air

Red Day this year was on the 14th of February 2020. This rare occurrence made the day extra special as students flooded the school in waves of crimson, rose and scarlet.

The day was pregnant with various activities as students were eager to buy delicious baked goods sold by the SRC as well as hearts, rose bouquets, gift boxes and candy jars from the Yearbook Club to show their love and appreciation to their peers. The SRC Red Day jams crowned the day off, as students danced the night away and captured precious moments with their friends in the photo booth.

All in all, it was a successful day and we look forward to more days like this.

Display Creativity

Since the start of the 2019/2020 academic year, GIS has been an eager participant in all events organised by the International Schools Sports Association of Ghana. At the beginning of term one, students enthusiastically signed up for afternoon games in preparation for these events.

Halfway through the first term, ISSAG handball and football competitions commenced. This two day event took place on the Achimota Secondary School football field. After which the basketball and hockey competitions followed towards the end of term one.

Team GIS made a trip to the University of Ghana, where they showed off their skills and teamwork against the other schools, but on the second day, GIS had the home field advantage, since the event was held here in School. As we ushered in the new year, the ISSAG games didn't stop, but became much more competitive. Around the beginning of term two, the GIS team got comfortable in the school bus, seeing that they had to make a long trip to SOS for the ISSAG volleyball, swimming and table tennis competitions.

This packed event motivated spectators who gladly made the trip to witness for themselves who would take home the coveted cup along with the gold medals.

Finally term 2 saw teams ignoring the scorching sun, while battling for first place at the ISSAG track and field event held at the El-Wak sports stadium. After four tiring but exciting events, Team GIS did not disappoint. The girls hockey team made us proud by placing first for the second year in a row; however, they weren't the only team to place first. The entire boys and girls swimming teams placed first against all other competing schools. It didn't end there, our girls handball and table tennis teams placed second in their respective events, while the boys volleyball team placed third.

Congratulations Team GIS for making us proud and for sweeping numerous medals! And to two of our female runners, Saffron Bailes and Zaneta Otoo who broke the girls 100 meters record, we say well done!!!

8 Awards!

GIS Sweeps Awards at 2020 MISE Tournament

After almost 8 hours of finding solutions to complex problems in Mathematics and its applications to Computer Science and Engineering, Ghana International School came tops at the 2020 MISE Tournament (Mathematical Olympiad Tournament) Out of over 300 students nationwide, from various educational institutions, GIS took the following top awards:

- HIGHEST SCORER- KESHAV VISWANATHAN (FORM 3)
- SECOND HIGHEST SCORER- NIPUN AGARWAL (FORM 3)
- YALE SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING ASSOCIATION AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN COMPUTER SCIENCE AND ENGINEERING -RUSSEL FISCIAN (L6) &
- FKA ALLOTEY AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN MATHEMATICS - RONI EDWIN (L6).

Team GIS swept almost all the awards at stake and for that we say Congratulations!A very big thank you to all our amazing teachers who continue to encourage our students to strive for excellence! Ayekoo!!!

2020 Go Green Bazaar

Just as they do every year, the PTA organised another jam-packed Bazaar, filled to the brim with activities for all ages. There was so much to do! From the arts and crafts area, to the haunted house, to the football tournament and gaming room, to the makeup room and to all the wonderful vendors that came to showcase their products. One could not simply choose where to start!

Oh, and don't get me started on the food court, at the centre of it all. There was not one moment when that area was not buzzing with lots of people waiting for their chance to get all the delicious food into their impatient stomachs. Also, in light of this year's key phrase, "Being Socially Responsible", the theme was "Going Green". Amongst all the fun and excitement, the PTA was sure to remind us how important it was that we keep our environment clean and to help reduce our carbon footprints. There were student volunteers at every point, making sure that all trash had been disposed of properly and to educate the attendees on the importance of climate change and what we could do to slow down its effects.

All in all, the program was a success and the PTA was able to raise more than enough money due to the collective efforts of the school. This year's Bazaar was not one to forget.

RAK Week

The Human Resource Department once again was happy to celebrate the Random Acts of Kindness (RAK) Week with an exciting line-up of activities for all Staff. The four day activity dedicated to kindness was from Monday 17th to Thursday 20th February, 2020. The Rak bucket was out and about at every section for staff to participate.

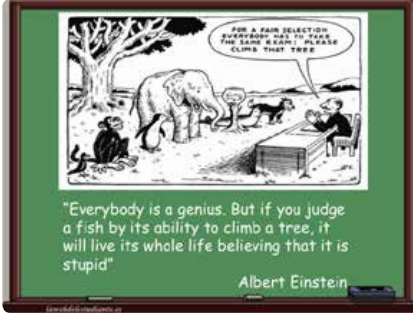

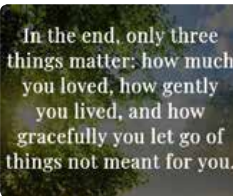

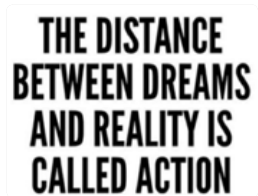

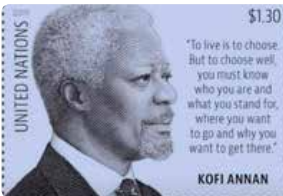

Staff members randomly picked out names of colleagues from the RAK bucket as candidates to experience kindness.

Day 1 - Cultural Pride: Knowing me, Knowing you. Staff got to share interesting aspects of their culture that represented them.

Day 2 - Pearls Of Wisdom: saw staff send out words of wisdom from a book/article that had impacted their lives via email to each other.

Day 3 -The Camaraderie of the staff childhood picture-guess challenge. This was exciting as prizes at stake included dinner for two (1st Prize), Fuel coupons (2nd prize) and call credit (3rd place prize) and finally...

Day 4- Fast Fingers:- It certainly was fun to see staff win various data bundles as well as a phone credits. A very big thank you to our HR Department for pulling this off. It truly was a HAPPY RAK WEEK!!!

Appreciating Loyalty!

On the 28th of June 2019, a few days after our annual Speech, Prize Giving and Graduation day event, the Management of Ghana International School came together to award the longest serving staff (10-35 years and above). Members were awarded for their dedication and commitment while others leaving on their retirement were also duly acknowledged and appreciated. Congratulations to our longest serving staff. We appreciate you and we wish you the very best of luck in all your endeavours!

Elise Jensen places Junior Runner up -2019 Quess Essay Competition

Form 2 Student Miss Elise Jensen was adjudged Junior Runner-up of the 2019 Commonwealth Queen's Essay Competition. With over 11,000 entries according to the Royal Commonwealth Society website, Elise's poem 'A place you feel connected to' is a vibrant, vivid celebration of her favourite elements of Ghanaian culture; a welcoming tale of food, dancing, clothing and the ties she feels to the country. Dr Diana Owen OBE, Director General of the Royal Over-Seas League and Chair of the Junior Final Panel, said of Elise's poem, 'A heartfelt hymn to Ghana, lively, bright, optimistic, playful and confident.'

Dr. Mary Ashun, teachers, and students all congratulated Elise on her wonderful achievement.

Elise's entire experience was crowned with an opportunity to enjoy a week of educational and cultural events in the UK, including attending the awards Ceremony at Buckingham Palace in the presence of Her Royal Highness, The Duchess of Cornwall.

Still More Wins!

GIS sweeps numerous 2019 Queen's Commonwealth Essay Competition Awards!

Over 11,000 young people from across the Commonwealth entered the Commonwealth Queen's Essay Competition. This year's competition was themed 'A Connected Commonwealth' and entrants were asked to consider how they can work to use cultural, technological and environmental connections for positive change across the Commonwealth.

With over 100 volunteer judges drawn from 40 different countries, our students did exceptionally well across Junior and Secondary School.

The overall Junior Runner Up was Elise Jensen. We had 4 Gold Finalists, 14 Gold, 34 Silver and 81 Bronze awards . We collected 134 Awards in total. Hurray!!!

Breast Cancer Awareness Month

In the month of October, awareness is created worldwide on Breast Cancer. To Join in the cause of creating awareness and to reiterate our Social Responsibility as a School, the Human Resource Department invited all Staff to come to work on Monday 7th October, 2019 attired in pink or white or in a touch of both.

The colour pink and the pink ribbon have both become powerful symbols to increase awareness about breast cancer throughout the month of October. The pink ribbon is worn to honour survivors, remember those lost to the disease, and to support the progress being made to defeat breast cancer.

According to the WHO "Breast cancer is the most frequent cancer among women, impacting 2.1 million women each year, and also causes the greatest number of cancer-related deaths among women. While breast cancer rates are higher among women in more developed regions, rates are increasing in nearly every region globally."

48th Annual GIS - PTA Sponsored Walk

Every year, GIS PTA hosts exceptional Sponsored Walks to raise funds and create awareness for mental health. This year was no different. The hype towards the sponsored walk run throughout the whole week and everyone just couldn't wait for 12th of October to arrive.

The slight rainfall that morning didn't stop us from attending the 48th year old tradition. Similarly to previous years, the Junior school students were given a 2 minute head start, before the rest of us were allowed to begin.

This year, a clean up committee made up of Lower Sixth Formers (including myself) helped pick up the litter during the walk. This ensured that the environment was kept clean and sustained. After more than 3 hours of rigorous walking and constantly shouting and asking "where is the next post??", all walkers arrived at the Presbyterian Women's Institute in Abokobi, the end point where refreshments were served. As always, this year's Sponsored walk was a huge success. We look forward to an even more exciting and highly patronized 2021 Sponsored Walk!

Making Impact!

In line with our Key Attribute for the 2019-2020 Academic Year Social Responsibility, GIS' Head Girl Abena Asare-Konadu along with Edem Bleboo spent their summer holidays making a total of 130 new exercise books out of recycled paper.

Cultivating a habit of recycling in our students is essential. Our goal is to encourage them to recognize the need to protect, sustain, and regard the environment as their inheritance and responsibility.

Last term, Abena and Edem found many unused pages in old exercise books during a community service clean up exercise organized by the school. Instead of disposing of all the unused sheets, they decided to recycle the sheets into mini booklets and donate them to the Kotobabi 13 School in Maamobi. They partnered with members of the GIS Kotobabi 13 Club (K13 Club) and Ms. Samantha Harrop (GIS Math Teacher and K13 club coordinator) to make the donation.

Well done for coming up with this wonderful initiative, Abena and Edem! We hope that by this rendered act of kindness, others will be encouraged. A very big thank you to all. Let's continue to be impactful and socially responsible citizens.

Children's Heart Foundation Appeal for Jessica Nkansah

Continuing a fourteen year history of supporting children with congenital heart defects, Jessica Nkansah was next in line. Her complex hole in heart condition required an immediate corrective surgery at a cost of $9,000, which is completely out of reach for her family. After numerous weeks of appealing to members within our GIS community, we were able to give Jessica the Gift of Life. On the 10th of December 2019, Mrs. Mary Ocansey, Head of Admissions and leader of this laudable initiative announced that we'd been able to raise sufficient funds to finance Jessica's much needed heart surgery. We had actually gone beyond the stipulated amount clocking a whopping total of Ghc 63,125.46 for not just one but two corrective heart surgeries. The cheque was presented to the Children's Heart Foundation at a short ceremony at the Secondary School assembly.

Jessican had waited since her diagnosis at age four, for this life changing opportunity. A very heartfelt thank you to everyone who made this possible. What a blessing it is to be a part of this life changing experience for little Jessica. Well done GIS!

Carols Night

A Holly Jolly GIS Christmas! - Carols Night

Twas a night full of Christmas cheer and merry-making as students, parents and teachers came together to celebrate the wonderful holiday. The festively designed Junior School Assembly hall was illuminated with bright sparkling lights, vibrant ornaments, and gold tinsel adorned every corner.

There were performances by the Junior and Secondary School choirs, as well as the staff choir, which wowed the audience as they belted out their song. The program showcased many students' talents, ranging from singing to dancing to spoken word, and they even effortlessly played various musical instruments.

At the end, the audience and performers all poured their hearts in a stunning rendition of "We wish you a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year" to close the show. It was nothing short of Christmas magic.

GIS Organizes 2nd Professional Learning Institute (PLI) in collaboration with AISA

The Association of International Schools in Africa (AISA) in collaboration with GIS organized another Professional Learning Institute (PLI) on Friday 21st & Saturday 22nd February 2020 under the theme "Data Tells A Story: Using Data To Guide Continuous School Improvement".

The 2 day conference was facilitated by Victoria L. Bernhardt, Ph.D., a leading authority on data analysis for continuous school and district improvement. She is the author of over 22 highly recommended books on data analysis, school improvement, Response to Intervention, and more.

Her engaging workshop sessions had both local and international participants, focused on building the capacity to analyze and use data effectively. It was hands-on with breakout sessions reinforcing the fundamental concepts while providing fresh perspectives on data analysis and its use. At the end of the workshop, AISA certificates were presented to teachers for credit hours in AISA recognised universities and participants were able to analyze multiple measures of data, school processes and use the Program Evaluation Tool to implement school vision, with integrity and fidelity. They were also equipped with skills on how to monitor implementation, and evaluate their impact. As a hub for educational excellence, GIS believes that as educators it is imperative that we strive for excellence knowing that what we do is making a difference in our world today.

A big thank you to everyone for coming and for making the entire experience a success.

Mr. Joseph Owusu

“The right word at the right time in the right place can heal and calm”, but the sudden loss and departure of our Dear Colleague, Brother and Friend, the late Mr Joseph Owusu was just unexpected and unprecedented that the awe cannot just keep us calm nor heal the pain and shock we feel inside.

Mr Owusu a.k.a “Owusu Junior” (because he had a Supervisor with the same surname) or “Okusie” as we affectionately called him rose to the rank of an Assistant Supervisor under my watch. He became a conscientious and reliable Member especially of his night shift because he possessed a natural and peculiar inclination for staying up at night into the dawn with ease which of course was contrary to the normal cycle of human chronology. This peculiar nature however worked well in his favour and he will be observed on CCTV in the Control Room gallivanting around the perimeter fencing of the primary school which translated into effective deterrence patrols, preventing the gimmicks and possible nefarious acts of intrusion.

As history will have it, this act was perfected over years even before my acquaintance with him four years ago as his Occupational Lead. The story was told in the past when he used to while away time by hunting at night in pursuit of his delicacy. Probably that was one of the reasons the pseudonym “Okusie” was attributed to him. Owusu had the true grit of a disciplined “old soldier” who was very conscious of his time. If he was late for duty then indeed there was a problem that inhibited him from making it on time. His favourite saying in Twi translates as “If he is in the house what else will he be doing asides sleeping - so why will he intentionally want to skip work?”

Mr Joseph Owusu will be sorely missed, but happily remembered by those who were fortunate to have known him . The thoughts of every GIS Security Member of this august department rest with his immediate family.

Term 2 ends abruptly with the first case of Covid-19.

How it all started and what happens next, explained

On December 31, 2019, the World Health Organization's (WHO) China office heard the first reports of a previously-unknown virus behind a number of pneumonia cases in Wuhan, a city in Eastern China with a population of over 11 million. What started as an epidemic mainly limited to China has now become a truly global pandemic. There have now been over 3,117,880 confirmed cases and 217,212 deaths, according to the John Hopkins University Covid-19 dashboard, which collates information from national and international health authorities.

The disease has been detected in more than 200 countries and territories, with Italy, the US and Spain experiencing the most widespread outbreaks outside of China. In the UK, there have been 161,145 confirmed cases and 21,678 hospital deaths as of April 27, 2020. The true number of infections and deaths is likely to be considerably higher.

The first two cases of COVID-19 in Ghana during the 2019–20 worldwide pandemic was confirmed on 12 March 2020, when two people returned from Norway and Turkey. One case was a senior officer at the Norwegian Embassy in Ghana who had returned from Norway, while the other was a staff member at the UN offices in Ghana who had returned from Turkey. The Government confirmed Ghana's first two cases of coronavirus in a press conference organised by the Information Ministry.

Immediately after the first two cases were officially confirmed a Press Release signed by the School's Principal read "After consultation with the GIS Board of Directors I would like to announce that the Ghana International School will CLOSE at the end of the School Day today, 13th March 2020 at 3:30pm for the next two weeks till 27th March, 2020. This early closure is in line with Board Policy on Emergencies. All families have received detailed information regarding the closure and information regarding our Virtual Learning Environment. We look forward to resuming school on Tuesday 14th April, 2020 after the Easter Break. We wish you all a safe and healthy season!

News of our immediate closure spread like wildfire, our school was buzzing with lots of news reporters scrambling for interviewing opportunities. Ghana International School had done it again, setting the pace by taking the best precautionary measure by closing down and implementing the Virtual Learning Environment. A few days later President Nana Akufo-Addo at a press briefing on the state of COVID-19 issued a directive closing down all basic schools, senior high schools and universities, both public and private to reduce the spread of COVID-19.

GHANA INTERNATIONAL SCHOOL ADOPTS VIRTUAL TUITION AS PREVENTIVE MEASURE

An unusual term

Welcome to the most unusual School Term of our lives! We are online beginning a term for the first time in the 65 year history of GIS. One of the comforting things is that we are not alone; all around the world, schools are either in session or about to begin a session away from the familiar territory of the school campus. My thoughts and prayers today are with all of us...let's go forth and turn this Term into the best one ever!!

SCHOOL SONG

From all the countries of the earth,
we come in turn to you,
of different races, different creeds and different aspects too.

We learn together day by day,
in time our ways will part.
But with each one of us we'll take
'Understanding of each other'.

May we go out from this our school in the glory of our youth and be prepared to live our lives with courage, honour and truth.
And as the days pass one by one may we be made to see the greatest gift in life can be
'Understanding of Each Other'.

Of all the lessons we have learned the greatest one must be that all the peoples of the earth should live in harmony.
No need for war no need for strife, for we can surely see the way towards a peaceful life is 'Understanding of Each Other'
